Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—The Government is pleased to say in reply to (b) that the matter is under correspondence with the Government of India. May I know on what aspects of the question the Government is pursuing correspondence in this behalf?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—On the recommendations of the Committee.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—The Committee's recommendations are very wide. I would like to know on what aspects of this question the correspondence is going on with the Government of India.

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—The present slaughter houses are not in a very good condition and therefore they have to be modernised. From this point of view, the Committee has made certain recommendations. They have been forwarded to the Government of India for financial help.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—What is meant by upgrading of slaughter houses?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—At present, the slaughter houses are not in a healthy condition and they are not situated in proper places. Certain improvements are necessary. So, the Committee has recommended certain improvements in the existing slaughter houses.

Sri G. SIVAPPA.—May I know whether the Hon'ble Minister has visited any of these slaughter houses on any occasion?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—Yes.

Sri G. SIVAPPA.—Then, what are his impressions?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—My impression is that the present slaughter houses are not in a good condition.

Sri K. S. SURYANARAYANA RAO.—Is one of the recommendations in respect of pharmaceuticals referred to by the Hon'ble Member, Sri Deenadayalu Naidu?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—The recommendations are not with me just now. It may be one of the recommendations. They have been forwarded to the Central Government and so I do not know whether that is one of the recommendations.

Sri K. S. SURYANARAYANA RAO.—Will the Government be pleased to place before the House the recommendations made by that technical committee?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—I have no objection, but they are not available with me now.

Sri S. MUNIRAJU.—Who is the Chairman of this Committee?

Sri R.C HENNIGARAMAIAH.—The Mayor of the Corporation.

ಶ್ರೀ ಎಸ್. ಮುಬ್ಬಯ್ಯ ನಾಯ್ಕ್.—ಆ ಸಮಿತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಇರುವ ನದಸ್ಯರು ಯಾರು ಯಾರು?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—The Mayor of the Corporation is the Chairman and the Director of Medical Services is the Secretary. The other members are the Director of Public Health and the Health Officer of the Corporation.
